Monday, July 28, 1793.

London, July 28.
On Saturday and Yesterday arrived the Mails from Holland and France.

Petersbourg, July 2.

TH E Czar designs to visit his Fleet about a Fortnight hence: he has made an Augmentation to it of 30 Gallies. The new Man of War that was to be launched some Days ago, is to be launched To-morrow. M. de Bettiuchef, the Czar's Resident at the Court of Denmark, is arrived here in seven Days from Copenhagen. The Persian Ambassadour is not yet arrived at Moscow, but has passed the Frontiers upon Post Horses at every Stage are ordered to be provided for him and his Attendants. A great Assembly was held Yesterday at Admiral Apraxin's House, at which were present their Czarish Majesties, the Duke of Holstein, and the two Princes of Hesse-Hombourg.

Stockholm, July 3. The King has consented to give the Title of Royal Highness to the Duke of Holstein. Last Friday there was a great Debate in the Assembly of the Nobility concerning the Estates in Land of which the Nobility was deprived in Charles the 11th's Time. It was resolved that an exact Research should be made into all the Estates and Demesnes of the Crown; and by what Titles it now possesses the same. It appearing to the Secret Committee by the Protocols of the Senate, that the Senators have frequently absented themselves under Pretence of the Infirmities of Age, of Affairs requiring their Attendance at the several Colleges, &c. it is said that Committee is determined to represent this Absence of the Senators to the States as a Matter of great Abuse, and very detrimental to the publick Good. Orders are given to the several Committees to assemble more frequently, that Affairs may be brought to a Conclusion as soon as possible.

Cadix, June 29. The Flotilla will sail from hence for the West-Indies in a few Days, but 'tis believed the Gallies will not depart till September next. The Bullion that was brought hither from Porto-Vendres is distributed to the Proprietors.

Madrid, July 6. Advices from Alicante of the 26th past relate, that Cardinal Belloga arrived there that Day from Rome; and that a Felucca fitted out by Order of the Prince de Campo Florido, had taken a Bark with 15 Algerians that designed to land on that Coast, where for some time past they have done a great deal of Mischief: They lately forced a Post near Alicante, where an Ensign and 12 Soldiers kept Guard; the Ensign was killed, and six of the Soldiers were taken into Slavery; the other six had the good Fortune to escape by fighting their Way through the Infidels, who were above an Hundred.

Vienna, July 14. The Emperour and Empress went on the 4th Instant to the Church of All-Saints, where High-Mass was pontifically celebrated by the Bishop of Tyberiad: Before the Service was ended, the Head of St. Procopius, Protector of this Kingdom, was brought to their Imperial Majesties to kiss. A Cabinet Council was held the 12th Instant, at which the Emperour was present. His Imperial Majesty has begun to give Audience here since his Arrival to Foreign Ministers. The British and Dutch Ministers are come hither from Vizcaya Prince of Portugal is likewise arrived here. The young Archbishops having drank the Mineral Waters here, find herself perfectly recovered of an Indisposition she was troubled with. The Weather proves so cold in this Place that it has been requisite to cause Fires to be made in all the Palace Apartments; and the present bad Weather prevents the Court from Hunting.

Berlin, July 17. The King's Departure for Sleswig is fixed to the 20th Instant, and in a Day or two after the Queen will begin her Journey for Hanover.

Copenhagen, July 19. The King set out To-Day to Vrodenbourg, to continue there a few Weeks. Our Fleet is victualled for three Months, and is ordered to be in Readiness for sailing upon the first Notice. Three Ships lately fitted out, and three Frigates, are to be added to the Fleet, which is now commanded by Admiral Juchacz. The Hummer Frigate, that has been for a good while past at Petersbourg, Kexel, and other Ports in the Baltic, returned hither last Week; the Captain who commanded her, went immediately to the Castle, to give the King an Account of the Execution of his Commission.

Hannover, July 21. Yesterday the King returned to Heerenhausen from Pyrmont in perfect Health: His Majesty drank the Waters of that Place the usual Time of 14 Days. The Lord Viscount Townshend and the Lord Castlereagh attended His Majesty on his Return. His Majesty has received an Express from Berlin, with Advice that the Queen of Prussia intends to be this Evening at Heerenhausen. M. le Coq, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, having some Days ago received a Courier from his Master, immediately set out from this Place for Dresden. The Marquis of Pozzobuono, the Spanish Ambassadour, arrived here from London while the King was at Pyrmont, and went to see Hambourg; he is expected back within a few Days.

Paris, July 28. Letters from Constantinople relate, that several Agas, and other principal Officers of the Turks, supported by a Party of the Janizaries, had entered into a Conspiracy to depose the Grand Signior, and assassinate the Grand Vizier; but the Plot being timely discovered, Part of the Janizaries were put to Death, and eight of the chief Conspirators strangled in the Seraglio, each Execution being publicly declared by the firing of a Gun. The King has given Order for repairing the Damage the Town of Chateaudun lately sustained by Fire, and the Duke of Laines has given the Inhabitants Leave to cut down Wood in his Forests for building. Belle Humeur the Cartuchian, and the Priest that escaped with him some time ago from the Conciergerie Prison, were apprehended lately near Thionville by the Provost of Verdun, who has brought them hither; 'tis said the Priest will be condemned to perpetual Banishment. Letters of the 14th Instant from Strasbourg say, that the Prince Duke of Wirtemberg Stogard arrived there the 13th, and was received with all the Honours due to his Rank, but his Guards were not permitted to pass through with their Arms: That Prince was to set out from thence the 14th for Montbelliard, where extraordinary Preparations were making for his Reception: Those Letters add, that a Match was there talk'd of for the Prince of of Piedmont was one of the Leopoldine Archduchesses, and that Proposals have been made on that Affair. On the 22d, the Duke de Mollay was removed from the Bastille to the Castle of Vincennes. An Arrest will shortly be published, appointing a Clerk to examine all M. de la Jonchere's Bills issued upon Account of the Extraordinaries of the War. The Actions are at 880 Livres; the Liquidations at 18 Livres.

An Essay on the animal OEconomy, together with Observations upon the Small Pox. By J. Helvetius, M.D. Physician in Ordinary to the King of France, Inspector-General of the Hospitals in Flanders, and Member of the Royal Academy of Sciences. Translated from the French. Printed for William and John Innes, at the West-End of St. Paul's.

The wonderful Elixir for the PALSY, famous in most Parts of Europe, and now recommended by the very best Physicians in London, as the most infallible Medicine in the World for that Disease, for it absolutely cures the Palsy almost to a Miracle, be it ever so bad, universal, or of many Years standing; and that all other Remedies having prov'd ineffectual, restoring those afflicted with it perfectly healthy, strong, and vigorous. It immediately warms, comforts, and strengthens the enfeebled Nerves, and whole nervous System, revives the genuine Force and pristine Vigour of the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, fortifies and increases the animal Spirit, opens all Obstructions that hinder their free Course to invigorate the weakened Parts, and immediately takes away all Numbness, Deadness, Shaking, or Trembling, to Admiration; quickly restoring the true and steady Use of the Limbs, and assuredly curing the Palsy, and all its Concomitant Symptoms, in a very short Time, as Thousands have experienced. All other Indisposition of the Nerves is certainly cured, and is neither difficult to take, or occasions the least Trouble or Disorder. It is to be had only at Mrs. Bell's, a Book-Seller, at the Cross Keys and Bible near the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The most severe RHEUMATISM; and all Rheumatic Pains in the Limbs, &c. whether fixt or wandering, most certainly cured so as not to return again, by incomparable Chymical Drops which without the least Trouble or Disorder immediately free the Patient from that cruel Disease in a most wonderful Manner, for they immediately restore a due and equal Circulation to the Fluids in the minutest Canals, by effectually dissolving and subduing the fatal LENTOR, or viscid Matter that occasions the Mischief, in so much that all Manner of Pain, tho' never so long, or of many Years standing, presently vanishes to the Advantage of all who have taken them, who could not believe it in their Power, or account for it upon any other Reason. Many who have been afflicted with the Rheumatism for many Years together, and after trying most other Remedies, disappointed being ever refused, have been almost instantly cured by these excellent Drops, which were not so much as once known to them. They are very agreeable to the Taste, and for safety might be taken a sucking Infant without any Inconvenience. Are sold only at Mrs. Bell's, near the Royal Exchange, at 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
